Next Meeting: Monday, March 2nd
From February 2\(^{nd}\) – March 6\(^{th}\), 2009 the Penn State Food Science Club will be holding its 2nd Annual Food Drive to benefit the State College Area Food Bank. Labeled bins will be kept in the hallway outside of the Food Science main offices to collect donations. Any monetary donations should be clearly marked and can be given to Juanita Wolfe in Room 203 Food Science Building.

Current needs of the Food Bank include, but are not limited to:

Food Items:
- Dried fruit (e.g. cranberries, raisins)
- Cream soups
- Canned chili or beef stew
- Canned meat (e.g. Spam, chicken)
- Flour – all purpose
- Granulated sugar and/or sugar supplements (no confectioner’s sugar)
- Mayonnaise/Salad Dressing
- Cooking Oil
- Tea/Coffee (regular and decaf)
- Baby food and/or formula

Non-Food Items:
- Hand soap
- Laundry soap
- Shampoo/Conditioner
- Deodorant
- Toothpaste

Let’s try to beat last year’s total of 125 lbs!

On behalf of the Penn State Food Science Club, thank you for your generosity.

If you have any questions concerning the Food Drive please contact the Food Science Club Service Chair, Michelle Tam at mkt136@psu.edu
