Food Science Club Meeting Minutes
August 30, 2010

- The meeting began with the executive committee introducing themselves and their positions on the executive committee.
- Check out food science club on Angel, Facebook, and the university website
- Erin Fleming briefly introduced the new points system.
  - Points will be given when participating in various club activities
  - Rewards will be given for different membership ranks are reached
- Signs ups for fundraising, service, and social committees will begin next meeting
  - Each club member is required to join a committee
  - Committees will have their own meetings as needed
- Colleen Scott, product development chair, briefly explained what product development team is
  - Look for emails from her with updates
- Mike Kalaras is in charge of college bowl
  - 4-6 people are needed and practices will be once a week starting around December
  - The competition is during the spring semester
  - Look for emails later in the semester from Mike
- Ag Club Fair is on September 1 from 11-2 outside the creamery
- Dr. Fernandez hosts a tailgate before each home football game
  - Come to Ag Arena from 9-11 this Saturday morning
- Ag Hill Olympics- September 19th
  - Volunteers are needed to be on the team and to run our event
  - Ideas for our event are also needed
  - A sign up sheet was passed around
- Harvest Fest- September 25-26th
  - We sell creamery ice cream at Delgrosso Park
  - A sign up sheet was passed around
- T-shirt sell is going on
- Sign ups and details to come for Tailgate on October 9th sponsored by Food Industry Group
- Various professional groups were explained
  - IFT (Institute of Food Technologists)
    - Professional group for the food industry
    - $50/year for student membership
  - FIG (Food Industry Group)
  - Linked In- networking website
- Bi-Annual Award
  - Monetary award given to an IFT and food science club member that shows great service towards the club
  - $250 given to a different student every semester
- Dues are needed to be paid in order to be a member of the club
  - Give dues to Assistant Treasurer, Liz Beck
  - $15 for 1 year or $50 for 4 years

Dr. Doores gave a presentation