

Calendar for Part A of Component 1: This calendar is a guide and, as such, is subject to change. It will be adjusted, as necessary.

Part A: Grammar Concepts:

A. Weeks 1 through 11:

- 1) For each lesson listed there will be a handout assignment sheet.
- 2) Explanations of new information found in these review lessons will be explained only when assigned.
- 3) The student is expected to complete all assignments independently and outside of class.
- 4) These exercises may be completed while working with the other students enrolled in the course.
- 5) The assignments will be handed in as per instructions given for each Chapter.
- 6) Unless otherwise instructed all exercises are to be written out or typed in complete sentences and are to be handed in corrected (as will be instructed) in red or green ink.
- 7) During the week after the end of each “BLOCK”, the student will make an appointment with the instructor to take a test at a time that is convenient for the student.
- 8) For each grammar test, the student will be instructed as to which references may be used during the assigned test.
- 9) The student will be held accountable for any of the content found in the section called “NOTAS CULTURALES” but only for those sections that are assigned.

B. Weeks 12-15

- 1) Chapters 11, 12 and 13 are intended to introduce the student to the concept of the subjunctive mood and how it operates in Spanish.
- 2) Chapters 21, 22, and 24 will also include new information.
- 3) Chapters 26, 27, 28: Only selected parts from each chapter will be covered and these particular three chapters, due to their content, will be worked on throughout the entire semester.

Calendar for Part B of Component 1:

Again, this calendar is a guide and, as such, is subject to change. It will be adjusted, as necessary.

The topics selected below have been chosen to help the student prepare him/herself for the actual immersion experience in Mexico. Throughout the semester the student will be required to do readings of various types, including the reading of an assigned novel. For all of these readings there will be announced and unannounced quizzes, written assignments, and written tests. All written tests will be announced one week in advance.
