

Penn State College of Agricultural Sciences
Community of Advising Excellence Award
2017 Nomination Form and Packet

The Community of Advising Excellence recognizes outstanding academic advisers in the College of Agricultural Sciences. All tenure track and tenured faculty as well as staff who advise undergraduate students and who are subject to the Student Response to Advising Effectiveness (SRAE) process are eligible for nomination. Multiple recipients worthy of this award and distinction can be recognized for this particular award, and individuals could receive this award up to three times, whereupon they are inducted as permanent members in the prestigious Academy of Advising Excellence. Selection of the award recipient(s) is made by the Faculty Awards Committee and standing members of the Academy of Advising Excellence in the College of Agricultural Sciences at Penn State.

Note: Complete nomination packets are to be submitted by 5:00 PM Friday, November 10, 2017 to the Office for Undergraduate Education, College of Agricultural Sciences; ATTN: Tracy Hoover(101 Ag Admin. Bldg.; 865-7521; tsh102@psu.edu).

Nominations must include the following information:

A. Nomination Form. Complete and attach this form as page one of your nomination packet.

Name: _____

Title: _____ Joined Penn State (Yr): _____

Department: _____

Academic Appointment (%Teaching, %Research, %Extension): _____

Number of undergraduate students advised during the 2016-17 Academic Calendar: _____

B. Nomination Letter. Attach a brief nomination letter from the nominee's academic unit leader.

C. Reflective Statement of Advising Philosophy. Attachment; limit to one typed page.

D. Measures of Advising Effectiveness. Attachment of relevant supporting materials.

E. Service to Students and the Advising Profession. List, and add as an attachment.

F. Professional Development. List, and add as an attachment.