

COLLEGE OF AG SCIENCES
INTERNATIONAL EDUCATIONAL EMBEDDED EXPERIENCES
SPRING 2011

International Educational Embedded Experiences are courses that are led by CAS faculty in the spring semester, are typically 3 credits but can be more, and have an “embedded” international trip experience either over spring break or right after the spring semester ends. The trip component can last for 1 to 4 weeks. Some are focused on specific major areas or groups. Please contact Ketja Lingenfelter, Study Abroad Coordinator at ketja@psu.edu for details.

Location	Course Number	Course Title/Description	Travel Dates	Leader
Brazil	AGECO 499	Sustainable crop production, environmental and integrated pest management strategies course and study tour to Brazil, 3 credits	spring break 2011	Kate Butler Melanie Gilbert
Chile	HORT 497	Global Trade of Horticulture	March 5-13, 2011	Rick Bates
Costa Rica	ERM/CED 499	Learn about connections between communities, development, and the environment. Visit local integrated and organic farming operations, eco-friendly lodges, botanical gardens, experience tropical rainforest.	spring break 2011	Tarrah Geszvain Rob Shannon
France	INTAG 497A	Comparing US/French Agricultural Systems spring semester course and study to France, based in Paris, 3 credits	May 14-28, 2011	Ted Jaenicke Ketja Lingenfelter
Ireland	INTAG499A	Exploring Agricultural Leadership in Europe: Ireland, the Celtic Tiger, and Modern Agriculture for Ag Advocates and other student leaders in CAS, 3 credits	May21-June 5, 2011	Marianne Fivek Mark Brennan
Italy	FDSC497F	Turin region	End of May, 2011	Michelle Haagen Bob Steele
Kenya	AGRO/CED 497C	Agricultural Systems in East Africa, Eco-village in Lamuria	End of May, 2011	AGRO: Sjoerd Duiker CED: Janelle Larson
Mexico	SPAN 107	Third level Spanish for the agricultural industry with three week Language Immersion Experience at Cuernavaca and Buenavista de Cuellar	End of May, 2011	Alex Borys
Scotland	SOILS 497A	Soil and it’s management thru time in Scotland, 3 credits	May 7-16, 2011	Patrick Drohan

NOTE: Your Judicial Affairs record and Academic record may be checked as part of the pre-departure process for any College of Agricultural Sciences embedded program. If you have a significant disciplinary Judicial Affairs record, are currently on disciplinary probation, academic probation, or if your GPA is below 2.5, you may be deemed ineligible for the program.