SCHOOL HALL

Above: Zambian youth celebrate completion of their leadership development training, in a program led by the UNESCO Chair, UNESCO, and NGOs.

Join us for this high-level event featuring internationally recognized experts, policy makers, practitioners, and a lively panel discussion, “Empowering Youth for Community Engagement and Development.”

Dr. Mark Brennan, UNESCO Chair and Penn State professor, will deliver the inaugural lecture, “Achieving Education for All, Realizing Engaged Communities, and Creating Global Citizens for Change Through the UNESCO Chairs Program”—a call to action for groundbreaking research, teaching, and applied programs for the betterment of young people and communities worldwide. Visit the registration site for details.

Register online by Wednesday, July 10, at <http://www.cvent.com/d/scqbpt> or call toll-free 877-489-1398.

Establishing a United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) chair is a rare and prestigious honor. Only eighteen exist in the United States, and the UNESCO Chair in Rural Community, Leadership, and Youth Development established in Penn State’s College of Agricultural Sciences is the first of its kind.
